OF

JOHN THOMAS CHEEK

Born on April 29, 1942

Died May 9, 1955

"Should you go first and I remain
To walk the road alone,
Walk slowly down that long, lone path
For soon I'll follow you.
I'll want to know each step you take
That I may walk the same
For someday down that lonely road
You'll hear me call--your name. "

"Greetings! I'm Kool Kat, and my job is to take you through the "1960" MIHISCAN! I represent the age in which you are now living. The age of rockets, space ships, Beatniks, rock & roll, atomic bombs, etc. Many things have happened since you embarked upon the sea of life. These memories recorded in this yearbook may bring a tear to your eye or a smile to your lips. They are memories which are behind you, but ones that will never be forgotten. May you always be the kind of men and women M. H. S. would be proud to call her own, as you go "out of the harbor, into the deep."

Remember When - - -

Linda Brown and Steve Holmes played hookey and were expelled from school.

Bob Stum got sick in Government Class and Sandi thought he was having a "fit."

Jim Byrer used to wear guns to school every day, and could out draw all the boys.

Mary Lu had long pigtails, and whenever we got mad at her we pulled them.

Joyce Manis was taller than Richard Reedy.

Mrs. Anderson threatened to hit Richard Reedy over the head with a ball bat.

Joyce Manis and Sandi Cookman were the only ones in Music Class who couldn't carry a tune.

Barbara Arford got home late one night after Play Practice, and the whole town was looking for her.

Mr. Seavers called Linda Brown "Polly" and no one knew why.

Joyce Luce took her shoes off for her Prom Picture so she wouldn't be taller than Don.

Charlie Clevenger had a cold, and Mrs. Degner wouldn't let him cough in class.

Mr. Jameson said the Band should play "When The Saints Go Marching In" at our Graduation.

Diana Conn thought her I. Q. was getting lower.

Steve Holmes accused Carolyn Bucy of being a bad influence on him.

Kay McKinley and Pilk got stuck on a country road and had to walk to a farm house for assistance.

We had a "regular ball" at our All-Night Prom.

We went to Indianapolis, stopped at Wheeler's on the way back, and Steve Holmes ordered fried chicken and we had to wait about an hour on him to get it.

The Seniors almost beat the Faculty in this year's game.

We practiced for air raids by crawling under our desks at Central.

Betty Edwards got her diamond and it almost weighted her down.

SO
TRUE

On April 16, 1959, the class of "1960" chose "The Thread That Runs So True" by Jesse Stuart for their Junior Play.

Never to be forgotten was the "fight scene" between Jesse Stuart and Guy Hawkins, who were really our own Richard Reedy and Charles Clevenger.

Dramatic awards were received by Sandi Cookman as Grandma Binion, Richard Reedy as Jesse Stuart, Terry Stephens as Billy Leonard, and Charles Clevenger as Guy Hawkins. Mrs. Virginia Reedy directed our play, and Mr. Reedy assisted with sound effects.

On October 15, 1959, the Senior Class gave their play "I Was a Teen-Age Dracula."

One of the most difficult problems was to find a chest huge enough to contain the 6'4" body of Flan Pilkington. Another difficulty was creating enough mist to prove effective without blinding us or setting the stage ablaze. In spite of these problems, everyone had a wonderful time, and the play went over "real big."

Participating in the play were P. Shipley, D. Conn, B. Burr, L. Dahl, B. Arford, S. Fields, C. Bucy, S. Cookman, S. Holmes, K. McKinley, J. Luce, K. Young, M. Ambs, T. Gavin, G. Merritt, T. Stephens, B. Milburn, M. McCoy, B. Erli, C. Clevenger, R. Reedy, and F. Pilkington. Mrs. Virginia Reedy directed the play.

"We won! We won!" These words echoed throughout the Delaware County Fair as Middletown Band claimed the traveling trophy a second time.

Dressed in red and white sailor suits and hats, the Middletown Majorettes led the band to its victory. "Anchors Aweigh" was played as a boat was formed, and thus for its excellent marching, the Middletown Band claimed its prize.
